

INLAND 17.4: A HOUSE OF BROKEN DISHES, IN DENSE WOODS

8PM MONDAY 10TH APRIL 2017 - ENTRY $20/$12

We respectfully acknowledge the Wurundjeri people as the traditional custodians of this land, for which sovereignty was never ceded, and wish to pay respect to elders past and present of the Kulin nation, and to all First Nations persons present.

A house of roots / by a river / using natural light / inhabited by people who sleep very little

The great labour of appearance / Served the making of the pyre. / But how / Nor how / How also / How they / Shal nat be toold / Shall not be told. / Nor how the gods / Nor how the beestes and the birds / Nor how the ground agast / Nor how the fire / First with straw / And then with drye / And then with grene / And then with gold / And then / Now how a site is laid like this. / Nor what / Nor how / Nor how / Nor what she spak nor what was her desir / Nor what jewels / When the fire / Nor how some threw their / And some their / And their / And cups full of wine and milk / And blood / Into the fyr / Into the fire. / Nor how three times / And three times with / And three times how. / And how that / Nor how / Nor how / Nor how / Nor who / I cannot tell / Nor can I say / But shortly to the point I turn / And make of my tale an ende.

A house of broken dishes / in a deserted church / using electricity / by people who enjoy eating together
